

Appeal to Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies

REVIEW THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY BEFORE SUBMITTING YOUR ONLINE FORM.

Step 1: Review and discuss the relevant information

1. Carefully review policy relevant to your request.
2. If you are requesting a course add or drop or a change in grading option, use the "Late/Retroactive Petition to Change Class Schedule" petition instead of this form. Available at the forms and documents page.
3. If you are requesting an exception related to your major requirements, use the "CED Course Substitution and Curriculum Petition Process" for your major instead of this form. Available at the forms and documents page.
4. Use this form to appeal to the Associate Dean to request special exception to college policy.
5. Requests will be reviewed by the Associate Dean's Committee
6. Meet with a CED Academic Advisor to discuss your request
 - a. Meeting with an academic advisor is required
 - b. Please visit tinyurl.com/CED-UG-advising for information on how to connect with a CED academic advisor.
7. Depending on the time of year, review of your request may take approximately 1-3 weeks to process.
8. You will be notified of the Associate Dean's Committee decision via your UC Berkeley email address.

Step 2: Gather and Organize Documents

1. Write a statement regarding request.
 - a. The statement should be a full, but concise, explanation of the circumstances requiring consideration of this exception. Including:
 - i. A clear chronological explanation of the extenuating circumstances that led to this request with relevant and specific dates, and facts.
 - ii. An explanation of any delay between the events referred to in your statement and the filing of this petition.
 - b. The Appeal to Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies Form (attached) provides a space for the statement, if more space is needed please attach a pdf document of the statement.
2. Organize the Appeal to the Associate Dean form and supporting documents.
IMPORTANT:
 - a. Attach documentation verifying extenuating circumstances.
 - b. If applicable provide relevant letters of support (from faculty, campus departments, etc.). Letters of support should be signed and submitted to cedadvising@berkeley.edu.
3. Combine into one pdf file.
 - a. Save the PDF file of your request as: "your last name, first name_SID_appeal_term of request" (Example "Bear,Oski_1111111_appeal_Fall 2020.pdf").
 - b. If supporting documentation cannot be combined with your request petition, you will be able to submit separate document. Save the PDF file of your work as: "your last name, first name_SID_appeal_document title" (Example "Bear,Oski_1111111_appeal_Employer note.pdf").

Step 3: Submit Online Form

1. Submit your completed form and documents (as applicable), via tinyurl.com/CED-appeal
2. Before completing the online form ensure you have all the information you needed to complete the form. Including;
 - a. The Appeal to Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies Form (attached),
 - b. Documentation of the extenuating circumstances that led to your request
3. Plan to spend 15-20 minutes filling out form.
4. Be aware that you are NOT able to save and return to the online form.
5. Incomplete petitions will be denied.

Appeal to Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies Form

Student's Name

SID Number

Major

Request: Briefly state the exception you wish to be considered.

Statement: